Grammar Point:

This aste (week) we will look at the negative clause, as there are a few examples in this song. The negative is formed by inverting the order of the sentence and putting the negation (ez) directly in front of the verb.

Konformatzen bagara.	If we conform.	Konformatzen ez bagara.	If we don't conform
Bizi-modu normala da.	It is a normal way of life.	Ez da bizi-modu normala.	It is not a normal way of life
Munduan bizi daiteke hala.	The world can live this way.	Munduan ezin bizi daiteke hala.	The world can't live this way
Postre formala da.	It is a sensible dessert.	Ez da postre formala.	It is not a sensible dessert
Errenta liberala da.	The tax is liberal.	Ez da errenta liberala.	The tax is not liberal.
Lapurdi hain zerbitzala da.	Lapurdi is that complacent.	Lapurdi ez da hain zerbitzala.	Lapurdi is not that complacent.
Jabeek dute kontzientzi zabala.	Landlords have an open/wide conscious.		Landlords do not have an open conscious.
Benetan da miserable.	It is truly miserable.		It is not truly miserable
Merkatuetan dena gora doa.	Everything in the market is rising.		Everything in the market is not rising
Lapurdi beti dago apala.	Lapurdi is always humble.		Lapurdi is not always humble.
