

Xalbadorren HeriotzeanAt Salvadore's Funeral*Izenak*Nouns

Adiskide	friend
poesia	poetry
hego	wing
bertso	A Basque poem/verse plaza	plaza
kantari	singer
liho	linen
oinaze	pain
larre	Field
Urepel	a town in Lower Navarre artzain	shepherd
hegale	extreme - lateral
orhoitzapen	memory
hesia	wall/fence
kanta	song
lotura	tie
gorputz	body
muga	limit/border/edge
hats	breath
oihu	scream/cry

AditzakVerbs

antzaldatu	To perform
irutzi	to unite/weave irauli	To transform
ikasi	To learn
ihes	To escape
urratu	To break/break down libratu	To free
sentittu nahi	To want to feel estali	To cover/to hide

Izenondoak/aditzondoakAdjectives/Adverbs

Bihotz behera	endearing
Sentimentuzko	sensitive Bakardadez josia	full of solitude aske	independent/free
sakona	deep
bortitza	strong/powerful/severe

Grammar Point

Here's another lesson suffixes added to the end of words in euskara to denote multiple things, such as

-ten/tzen	with verbs to show continued / continuous action	Antzaldatu + tzen = antzaldatzen irauli + ten = irauten	To perform + ing = performing to transform + in = transforming
-ez	with nouns/adj/adv to tell "how" it is done	Bakardadez oinazez	In a solitary way in a painful way
-rik	with nouns used as a negation or to say "any" or as a superlative comparison	Urraturik Lotura guztietarik Gorputzaren mugetarik Nahirik Bertsorik sakonena	Break down No ties The (furthest) boundaries of the body Not wanting The deepest verse